

“I Knew... You Would Get My Attention!”
Jonah 1:4-17 - Sunday, September 1, 2019

Probing the Passage

Reactions to the Lord:

We will compare _____ and _____.

Jonah's Sin Swamps the Boat:

Jonah is the one _____ against God.

Those who are with Jonah are in _____ of being swamped.

Your Sin isn't just about You:

At the heart of "You do You" is the belief that you are _____.

But you are in a _____ with others.

Jonah Falling:

Jonah has gone down continuously.

This is What Sin Does:

You _____ with the wrong tone.

You let it go unaddressed

You say an _____ word.

You let it go unaddressed

You _____ at someone

And feel nothing.

“I Knew... You Would Get My Attention!”
Jonah 1:4-17 - Sunday, September 1, 2019

Probing the Passage

Reactions to the Lord:

We will compare _____ and _____.

Jonah's Sin Swamps the Boat:

Jonah is the one _____ against God.

Those who are with Jonah are in _____ of being swamped.

Your Sin isn't just about You:

At the heart of "You do You" is the belief that you are _____.

But you are in a _____ with others.

Jonah Falling:

Jonah has gone down continuously.

This is What Sin Does:

You _____ with the wrong tone.

You let it go unaddressed

You say an _____ word.

You let it go unaddressed

You _____ at someone

And feel nothing.

Two Truths:

The Lord who made the _____

Running away on a _____

The Sailors:

Are sailing with a man who landed them in stormy seas.

The man takes the blame.

Their response is to try to _____ him!

The Sailors' Prayer:

Ultimately, the sailors pray You are God and we are not.

They choose to _____ God's commands.

In the Depths:

Jonah prays.

As Jonah has _____ himself as low as he can possibly go, God shows up.

The Fish "Says":

Your _____ continues

God still _____ you.

God still has a _____ for you.

Two Truths:

The Lord who made the _____

Running away on a _____

The Sailors:

Are sailing with a man who landed them in stormy seas.

The man takes the blame.

Their response is to try to _____ him!

The Sailors' Prayer:

Ultimately, the sailors pray You are God and we are not.

They choose to _____ God's commands.

In the Depths:

Jonah prays.

As Jonah has _____ himself as low as he can possibly go, God shows up.

The Fish "Says":

Your _____ continues

God still _____ you.

God still has a _____ for you.