KATHLEEN McDERMOTT: Last Monday, Kathleen McDermott, a member of our church family, died after a long battle with cancer. In the last month she was placed in hospice care. It has been awe-inspiring to see how many of you chose to come to her aid. Kathleen would want you to know that she dearly and deeply loved you as her church family. Thank the Lord that she knew Jesus as her Savior, and that she is securely in the Lord's hands now. Please pray for Kathleen's daughter, Erica, and Kathleen's grandchildren as they process her loss. Particularly, pray that the light of Jesus shines as they mourn her passing. No date has been set for a memorial service for Kathleen, but we will inform you when we have one.

CALLING ALL GARDENERS! We would like to inform and inspire gardeners and floral designers to sign up for the weekly botanical (floral) bouquet to be displayed on the pulpit each Sunday. We would prefer that the arrangement be home grown (your garden or the neighbor's) and we want you to know there is no limit. You can take it home after the service or leave it to embellish the sanctuary for the week. We have an assortment of containers in the downstairs kitchen if needed. The sign-up sheet for this service is in the narthex. Thank you.

A GARDEN TEA PARTY: Lovely FTPC ladies, you are cordially invited to a garden tea party on Sunday, July 10 from 1:00-3:00 pm, at Barb Ivanov's home. You don't need to bring anything but your beautiful self, and please feel free to invite friends. The address is 14240-57th Ave S, Tukwila; it's one block from the church. You could walk down the hill and leave your car in the church parking lot, or park on the street next to Barb's house. Tea and refreshments served, rain or shine. RSVP by texting Barb at 206-920-3385.
